The Mission of the Maryland Legal Services Corporation is to ensure low-income Marylanders have access to stable, efficient and effective civil legal assistance through the distribution of funds to nonprofit legal services organizations.

As we celebrated our 40th anniversary in 2022, we at Maryland Legal Services Corporation reflected on our past and planned for things to come. We returned to an in-person awards reception for the first time since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, at which we celebrated those who helped establish MLSC, recognized current leaders in the civil legal aid field and highlighted advocates with bright futures.

Thanks to dramatic increases in interest rates, and therefore growth in revenue from Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA), MLSC was able to increase grant funding in FY22, restoring cuts that were made when the pandemic caused a severe drop in income. Those funding increases could not have come at a better time - like many organizations across the country, MLSC's grantees are feeling the effects of the tight labor market, and the longstanding gap between nonprofit legal services employee salaries and those in the government or private legal field has widened.

We are committed to working with our grantees to address this gap, and in fact have already made a round of supplemental funding to support salary increases. Helping grantees recruit and retain talented staff is a key priority to ensure Marylanders in need have access to the highest quality legal services. Are you or someone you know looking for a career change? Check out the Jobs section of our website (www.mlsc.org), where we post meaningful civil legal aid jobs for attorneys, paralegals and more.

Throughout the course of the year, MLSC received state and federal grant awards, as well as appropriated state funds, to launch the Access to Counsel in Evictions program and fund other important work. MLSC has worked closely with our grantees, the ACE Task Force, and state and local partners to kick off implementation of the ACE program, and we look forward to expansion across the state next year.

Thank you for your ongoing support of MLSC. We look forward to continuing to work together toward access to justice for all.

Dear Friends & Colleagues,

IN 1982, responding to the instability of federal funding for civil legal services, the Maryland General Assembly passed bills to create the Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA) program to fund civil legal services and to create MLSC as an independent nonprofit to administer the funds and make grants to providers on the ground.

Later that year, Governor Harry Hughes appointed the first nine-member board of directors. In 1984, MLSC made its initial grants to four organizations, totaling just over $300,000.

In FY 2022, having weathered 40 years of financial ups and downs, national and international hardships, and a global pandemic, MLSC made grant awards totaling over $22.5 million to 37 organizations – including all of the first four.

Senator Guy Guzzone and Deb Seltzer, executive director of MLSC. Senator Guzzone read a resolution of the Maryland Senate’s congratulations on MLSC’s 40th Anniversary.

The client, a 68-year-old veteran, was displaced by an eminent domain seizure and received funding for alternative housing. He was exploited by his new landlord and came to SLS for help as his rent money was running out. SLS investigated and helped him become eligible for benefits to provide housing, food, and medical care. His landlord continued to exploit him, intercepted his mail, and tried to become his financial agent and Social Security Representative Payee. SLS created a support team that included an attorney, a social worker from the Department of Veterans Affairs, and a representative from a city agency with housing funding to help him move to a safer long-term home.

In the spring of 2022, MLSC approved for the coming fiscal year $18,067,753 in operating and intern grant awards to 36 organizations. In addition, through a $2,091,000 grant from the Administrative Office of the Courts and other funds, MLSC approved funding in the amount of $2,441,000 for the continuation of the Judicare project, which pays reduced fees to private attorneys for contested family law representation. Also, MLSC awarded funding of $577,445 restricted for foreclosure prevention and $1,059,269 restricted for workforce legal services, as well as new funding of $2,000,000 restricted for immigration legal services. With Phase 1 funding of the Access to Counsel in Evictions program and other money, MLSC awarded $8,114,458 for eviction prevention projects, as well as $1,069,709 for first-year funding of a coordinated intake system pilot for Access to Counsel in Evictions. In the fall of 2022, bolstered by stronger-than-anticipated IOLTA earnings, MLSC approved one-time grants totaling $1,081,845 and supplemental grants designed to help grantees adjust staff compensation totaling $3,316,684. MLSC made $22.5 million in operating, Judicare & special project grants to 37 nonprofits serving low-income Marylanders.

MLSC grantees closed cases in all 24 Maryland jurisdictions.

Our grantees closed over 75,000 cases (up 26.5% from FY21), benefiting 140,820 people.

Over 2,650 attorneys donated more than 65,700 hours of service.

Legal aid providers helped clients obtain more than $51 million in economic awards and avoid nearly $19 million in costs through their cases, for issues such as child support, consumer judgments and discharged debts.

Baltimore County
MARYLAND LEGAL AID
Operating Grant

A client, the mother and primary caregiver for her 5-year-old son, sought help from Maryland Legal Aid after the child’s father refused to bring him home, prevented him from communicating with his mother, and moved to an unknown location. The child missed several appointments, and his father did not enroll him in school. Legal Aid presented evidence to show she is a fit and proper parent. The Court agreed with Legal Aid’s argument and awarded the mother sole legal custody and primary physical custody of the child.

Frederick County
HEARTLY HOUSE
Operating Grant

A client in her 70’s divorced her abuser this past year. The client filed a divorce complaint three prior times (once with a private attorney) but always backed out at the merits hearing due to the abuser’s control and manipulation of the client. This time, with support and advocacy from her Heartly House attorney and advocate, she followed through and continues to stand up to her abuser after years of physical and mental abuse.

Allegany

JUDICARE - Allegany Law Foundation

A twenty-year-old client was seeking full custody of her three siblings. Their mother had passed away unexpectedly, and their father was incarcerated. She needed assistance navigating the legal system to ensure she was able to receive services for her siblings and act as their guardian. After being placed through Allegany Law Foundation, she received representation from one of their participating attorneys, and was granted custody of her siblings.

Baltimore

FORECLOSURE PREVENTION - St. Ambrose Housing Aid Center

A client came to St. Ambrose during her home loan modification trial period. She was unable to move forward because her ex-husband’s name was still on the title. She had tried unsuccessfully to draft the deed on her own and she could not afford a private attorney’s fee while continuing to keep her housing payments current. St. Ambrose drafted the quitclaim deed to remove the husband’s name following the divorce decree. He signed the deed and client recorded it so the loan modification could be finalized.

Montgomery

EVICION PREVENTION - CASA, Inc.

A single mother of three received multiple court summons for back rent. She had lost work during Covid, and CASA connected her to rental assistance, which resolved her cases and provided relief of nearly $19,000. More troubling were the landlord’s bad practices. They sent threatening notices called EVICTION ORDERS on bright colored paper. These contained misleading claims at a time when no hearing had yet taken place. CASA forced the landlord to stop issuing the deceptive notices and convinced them to remove $1,848.50 in illegal fees.

Prince George’s

Charles

A second-grade client with autism experienced ongoing behavior challenges, following a first-grade year disrupted by Covid, and was removed repeatedly from the classroom and suspended out of school. Public Justice Center successfully challenged the suspension due to the district’s failure to follow state law, and the suspension was removed from his record. They also helped him obtain a Functional Behavior Assessment and Behavior Intervention Plan (BIP), to help staff better support him. His behavior has improved significantly, and he is no longer frequently missing class for behavior-related reasons.

Harford

JUDICARE - Allegany Law Foundation

A twenty-year-old client was seeking full custody of her three siblings. Their mother had passed away unexpectedly, and their father was incarcerated. She needed assistance navigating the legal system to ensure she was able to receive services for her siblings and act as their guardian. After being placed through Allegany Law Foundation, she received representation from one of their participating attorneys, and was granted custody of her siblings.

Howard

A single mother of three received multiple court summons for back rent. She had lost work during Covid, and CASA connected her to rental assistance, which resolved her cases and provided relief of nearly $19,000. More troubling were the landlord’s bad practices. They sent threatening notices called EVICTION ORDERS on bright colored paper. These contained misleading claims at a time when no hearing had yet taken place. CASA forced the landlord to stop issuing the deceptive notices and convinced them to remove $1,848.50 in illegal fees.

Caroline

EVICION PREVENTION - Mid-Shore Pro Bono

A single mother of three sought legal assistance to address serious conditions in the house she had just rented, including rodents, bugs, no heat, and no working stove. She refused to pay rent until the issues were resolved. Instead of addressing the habitability issues, the landlord filed against the client in rent court. A Mid-Shore Pro Bono volunteer attorney represented the client, negotiating a settlement in which the landlord resolved the housing conditions, and no judgment was entered against the client.

Cardin Distinguished Service Award following a 25-year career with Community Law Center, including 17 years as Executive Director, during which she spearheaded litigation and developed programs and legislation to improve neighborhoods and benefit nonprofit clients.

MLSC presented three Rising Star Awards in 2022. Timothy Chance is the Tangled Title attorney at Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service, where his work and leadership bolsters the intergenerational transfer of wealth in communities of color. Anthony May, an attorney with the law firm of Brown, Goldstein & Levy, is known for his commitment to representing marginalized people, including school children and school staff with disabilities. Kayla Williams, supervising attorney with Community Legal Services of Prince George’s County, has built and managed that county’s Tenant Representation Program, increasing legal access for many in her community while garnering the respect of the bench and bar.

The William L. Marbury Outstanding Advocate Award was presented to Jacqueline Jones, longtime paralegal at Senior Legal Services in Baltimore. In the past twelve years, Ms. Jones has touched the lives of clients, community partners, and attorneys alike, providing stability within her organization across multiple directors.

At the Annual Awards Reception, Professor Michael Millemann, MLSC’s original board secretary, commemorated the life of Benjamin Civiletti, the 73rd US Attorney General and MLSC’s first board chair, who died in October 2022.
Susan Erlichman received the Robert M. Bell Medal for Access to Justice, MLSC’s highest honor, in recognition of her dedication and advocacy on behalf of Maryland’s civil legal aid delivery system over a 32-year career with MLSC, including 17 years as the organization’s Executive Director.

MLSC presented the Arthur W. Machen, Jr. Award to Frank Turney of the Law Offices of Frank E. Turney, P.A., who has not only performed significant pro bono bankruptcy work but has provided training and mentorship to other attorneys and helped Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service launch a new alternative debt relief program.

Kristine Dunkerton was named the recipient of the Benjamin L. Cardin Distinguished Service Award following a 25-year career with Community Law Center, including 17 years as Executive Director, during which she spearheaded litigation and developed programs and legislation to improve neighborhoods and benefit nonprofit clients.

Each year MLSC solicits nominations and presents awards to individuals and organizations that have contributed significantly to the provision of legal services to low-income Marylanders. MLSC held its annual reception on November 14, 2022 at Westminster Hall in Baltimore. This was the first in-person awards ceremony since the beginning of the pandemic. MLSC Board Chair Hon. Sidney Butcher and Supreme Court of Maryland Chief Justice Matthew Fader presented the awards.

MLSC presented three Rising Star Awards in 2022. Timothy Chance is the Tangled Title attorney at Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service, where his work and leadership bolsters the intergenerational transfer of wealth in communities of color. Anthony May, an attorney with the law firm of Brown, Goldstein & Levy, is known for his commitment to representing marginalized people, including school children and school staff with disabilities. Kayla Williams, supervising attorney with Community Legal Services of Prince George’s County has built and managed that county’s Tenant Representation Program, increasing legal access for many in her community while garnering the respect of the bench and bar.

The William L. Marbury Outstanding Advocate Award was presented to Jacqueline Jones, longtime paralegal at Senior Legal Services in Baltimore. In the past twelve years, Ms. Jones has touched the lives of clients, community partners, and attorneys alike, providing stability within her organization across multiple directors.

THE IOLTA HONOR ROLL
This joint initiative of the Maryland State Bar Association and MLSC consists of financial institutions that pay premium rates on IOLTA accounts, supporting critically needed legal aid for low-income Marylanders. We salute these institutions and encourage our supporters to patronize Honor Roll members.

THE DAILY RECORD

MARYLAND LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION • FY 2022 ANNUAL REPORT

MARYLAND LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION • FY 2022 ANNUAL REPORT
MLSC revenue for grants is primarily generated from the MLSC Fund, which is composed of three special funding sources:

- A surcharge on certain Circuit and District Court filing fees
- Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA) held by Maryland-licensed lawyers
- $8,000,000 from the Abandoned Property Fund

The MLSC Fund Appropriation is set in the State’s budget each year based on projected revenues. The appropriation sets an upper limit on the amount that can be spent but does not guarantee the Fund will receive the full amount. MLSC receives the amount actually collected in the Fund, up to the appropriation limit.

The volunteer lawyer spent over 70 hours on the case and was able to get it dismissed on the day of the trial.
The Maryland Legal Services Corporation, established in 1982 by the Maryland General Assembly, is a nonprofit organization governed by a nine-member Board of Directors appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. MLSC distributes funds from the Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA) program and other sources to nonprofit organizations for the provision of civil legal services to low-income Marylanders. MLSC currently provides funding to 41 nonprofit grantees throughout Maryland to ensure that eligible clients in all areas of the state have access to legal assistance.

Attorneys routinely receive client funds to be held in trust for future use. In the case of amounts that are small or to be held for a short time, attorneys must place these funds into Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA). The generated interest is used by the Maryland Legal Services Corporation for grants to programs that provide civil legal services to low-income Marylanders.
